David Manigold confirmed with Chief Roalson that the Police Department will continue to perform the background investigations on police patrolman candidates.

Chief Roalson and Captain Gualandri updated the Board on the status of the new patrol officers currently in PTI training. Due to the COVID 19 shelter in place order, onsite training has been suspended. Some online training is available, however the status of completing PTI is unknown at this time.

Chief Borkowski updated the Board on the status of the new firefighter training, which has been suspended due to the COVID 19 shelter in place order.

The suspension of training for both fire and police will affect the probationary period for the officers and firefighter.
